

Client Profile

The largest fully integrated poultry group extending its supply and value chain right up to the point of customer interface by forward and backward integration of its poultry business processes.

India's Leading Poultry Producer Business All-in-One Solution Implementation

Business Requirement

- ➔ The need to integrate business processes and centralize information management systems
- ➔ The need for reliable Production-related information flow to regional offices and the corporate office to effectively measure operating costs and project growth for the company
- ➔ The need for more visibility into reconciliation of inventory management

Intelligroup Solution

- ➔ Business All-in-One solution implementation
- ➔ Flock wise valuation & shed wise operational performance
- ➔ Capitalization (up to laying stage) & amortization (during laying stage) of costs of breeders
- ➔ Dual unit of measure of commercial broilers both in terms of inventory management & sales / purchases on net weight basis
- ➔ Common business processes for day-to-day operations & pricing engine for all divisions
- ➔ Meeting of internal as well as external reporting requirement using profit center accounting and other analysis
- ➔ Product costing is implemented to arrive the exact cost of the finished product for effective and efficient communication with the sales team

Business Benefits

- ➔ Predefined and pretested processes supported with ready data conversion tools
- ➔ Road map designed to implement a predefined business framework that is 70% done and focus on 30% that's unique
- ➔ Ready-made documentation covering business processes, and configuration that allows the project team to focus
- ➔ Predefined reports, authorization roles, and test scenarios that ensure a cost-effective implementation